WILL CUT P. M. SALARIES

Salaries of Ohio postmasters are to be lopped right and left in connection with the economy program of the administration.

Swift action has been taken on the recommendation of Postmaster General Burleson for wholesale reductions in postmasters' salaries.

By the decisive vote of ten to two the house committee on postoffices and postroads adopted the suggestion of the postmaster general as contained in his report made public Monday.

Some of the postmasters receiving $6,000 annually will be cut to $4,000, others to $4,500, $5,000 and $5,500. A small percentage stay at $6,000 and a few are advanced in $500 amounts to $8,000.

Sweeping reductions are to be made in the salaries attached to postoffices of the second class. The postmasters in those offices receive salaries ranging from $2,000 to $2,900. This scale is based upon receipts of the office.

Provision is made for only two fixed salaries, $2,000 and $2,500. All who are getting over $2,000 and less than $2,600 will receive $2,000; all over $2,500 and less than $3,000 will receive $2,500. Under the above arrangement the salary of the Medina postmaster will be $2,500, which is $100 less than it is at present. This reform marks a big change in governmental policy.

SEVILLE

Phillips Brooks says—"Our strength is measured by our plastic power—bricks and mortar are mortar and bricks until the architect can make them into something else." If you are in the formative age, better let him build you into something straight and strong and true. We haven't named the above, but call it a "sermonette" if you want to.

The next thing on the docket is taxes—hope you are all ready for them, as some of us are not.

It doesn't make any difference whether it rains or shines, birthdays go right on and -o Mr. Reuben Lee had one Dec. 10, and had everything fine—birthday cake and all. His sons were there and his daughter-in-law Mrs. Harriet Strong, his brother, Henry and wife, Mrs. Rachel Coulter and daughter Jeanette, Mr. Theron Taylor and grandson Lyman. Here is good luck to you sir, with many more mile stones to pass.

In our last communication we said something about the L. C. A.'s. Well they met. One matter of great importance was considered. The annual meeting will take place as usual the first Monday in January. Will every member who reads this sit up and take notice? This is the time when n-w trustees will be appointed, so put on your thinking cap and come prepared to elect these officers, as shall reflect credit upon all concerned. Invitations will not be sent out as hitherto, but from now on until after the above named date you will be reminded through the county papers and our own local news of the coming event.

Mrs. O. W. Rechsteiner will start for her old home Thursday morning, where later she will be joined by her husband, and together they will go to Lowell to spend an old fashioned Christmas, at the Rechsteiner home—stead.
